

THE WORLD'S NEWS IN BRIEF

Columbus, O.—Judge Edmund B. Dillon, Columbus, nominated for governor by Republican state convention this afternoon. Taft forces in control.

Sault Ste Marie, Mich.—400 men have left here for Shell Lake, 40 miles north, to aid in stamping out forest fire that has been raging for 48 hours. $750,000 worth of lumber already destroyed.

Washington.—George F. Peabody, nominal treas. Democratic national committee during 1904 campaign, testified before Senate committee investigating campaign contributions. As in all similar cases his memory was poor and he couldn't remember who did contribute.

Boston—100 girls employed in shirtwaist factory narrowly escaped death when fire attacked place. 6 firemen hurt.

White Plains, N. Y.—Dr. Austin Flint testified that he believed Harry K. Thaw was insane long before he killed Stanford White and is incurable.

Pittsburg.—Rev. W. D. McFarland, United Presbyterian minister, sentenced to pay 6¼ cents fine, costs of court and serve 1 year in county jail. Performed fatal and illegal operation on his stenographer, Elsie Coe.

Hutchinson, Kas.—Juan Diaz, cousin of former president of Mexico, died on train. Heart failure.

Monmouth Beach, N. J.—Count Alfred Seidenberg, German nobleman, and Howard Slade, New York broker, seriously injured when auto struck their carriage.

New York.—Chinese Tong war broke out on Mott st. 50 shots fired. One man may die.

Bogota, Colombia.—Wireless station with radius of 700 miles being erected at Cartagena, capital of Bolivar.

London.—Major George A. Squier, U. S. A., who has succeeded Major Slocum, resigned, as U. S. military attache in London, was presented to King George.

London.—Outbreak of foot and mouth disease in cattle has been traced to Ireland and all importation of stock from that country has been prohibited.

Maxwell, Ia.—Wilbur Taylor, 7, threw lighted firecracker. It fell down neckband of his waist. Clothing on fire. Dead.

Saginaw, Mich.—Wm. Parsell, 19, lost 2 fingers and Edward Sanborn, 13, lost index finger, when cannon exploded ahead of time.

Detroit, Mich.—Benedict Reith, 5, is dead from celebrating Fourth on the first.

New York.—Orchestra musicians at N. Y. theaters have gone out on strike for higher wages.

Couderay, Wis.—100 men searching woods for Ray Singer, 3, who has been lost since Sunday morning.

Cincinnati, O.—Fire destroyed Burkhard Oil Company plant. $100,000 loss.

Washington.—Admiral Usher cabled to navy dept. that Cuban